

attention, having caused as few as 100 deaths. The reports indicate that the Chinese are likely to find the Chinamen or Malay on Saturday, apparently only been a short while away from the scene of the surprise attack. It is likely to remain in Sydney for three weeks in order to attend the inquiry. Mr. T. C. Crane, however, will probably proceed to China for the first week, but for the time, Crane will probably accompany him. The possibility of abandoning the remainder of the tour, and returning direct to England, has been discussed, but it has been decided to carry out his original touring to China, and thence to England, via the United States.

San Francisco, 19th August.

From Portland, states that the bodies recovered from the wreck tarians, in order to be cured of opium smoking. In the case of one of the prisoners being brought into court, the following articles found in his possession were brought with him: a lady's umbrella, two native white coats (recognised as the Rev. Stewart's), a tin of condensed milk, and some silver ornaments. The Consuls and their party left the yamen this evening, escorted as usual by a guard, who were a company of soldiers bringing in a prisoner. He was carried between two poles (like a chair) in a wooden cage, the top of which formed a cage, through which his head protruded. The

The New York correspondent of the British Times, telegraphing to that journal, states that there is a marked impulse towards returning property in the United States, and in many of the manufacturing industries the employers are voluntarily increasing the wages of the workmen by 10 to 20 per cent. The Republican party admit that the fact of there being such general advances under the lower tariff, which they had denounced as a free-trade movement, will render it impossible to make the tariff question the great issue of the next Presidential election.
